The Family Services Coordinator provides resources and coordination of childcare related support services for faculty and staff at Wayne State University. The coordinator is the primary point of contact to provide support related to campus resources including on campus childcare, lactation rooms, coworking spaces, and other family friendly spaces. The coordinator will provide information related to local and state resources and community programs and continually research new offerings for faculty and staff. The coordinator acts as a liaison between WSU and community resources and builds relationships with external partners. The coordinator provides support to the Director of Faculty Equity Initiatives (Dr. Krista Brumley) and reports to Senior Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs and academic personnel (Dr. Boris Baltes).
